

Commercially Used Herbicides

Common Names

Active Ingredients

Garlon, Path Finder

Triclopyr

Possible Short Term Effects: Lethargy, incoordination, weakness, difficulty breathing, tremors, diarrhea, eye irritation.

Possible Long Term Effects: Reproductive problems, kidney damage, eye damage.

Common Names

Active Ingredients

AuSenal, Assault, Chopper

Imazapyr

Possible Short Term Effects: Eye irritation, skin rash

Possible Long Term Effects: Eye damage, lung and organ damage

Common Names

Active Ingredients

Oust

Sulformeturon Methyl

Possible Short Term Effects: Eye irritation, blurred vision

Possible Long Term Effects: Eye damage, Anemia, Reproductive problems.

Common Names

Active Ingredients

Roundup, Rodeo, Accord

Glyphosphate

Possible Short Term Effects: Eye and skin irritation, headache, nausea, numbness, elevated blood pressure, heart palpitations.

Possible Long Term Effects: Miscarriage, premature births, cancer.

Common Names

Active Ingredients

Tordon, Grazon

Picloram

Possible Short Term Effects: Eye and skin irritation.

Possible Long Term Effects: Liver, kidney, spleen damage and embryo loss.

Common Names

Active Ingredients

Weedone, Weed and Feed, as well as many other names

2, 4-D

Possible Short Term Effects: Drowsiness, vomiting, eye and skin irritation, numbness, and muscle twitching.

Possible Long Term Effects: Reproductive problems, immune system disorders, nervous system disorders, cancer.